Subject: blue wave or no.....

Corey,

I simply can't keep my feelings to myself any longer. The events of last Saturday have me in such a despondent state of mind. When you failed to speak out strongly against the Neo Nazi's in Charlottesville I immediately texted you. I told you that there was no room for equivocation, and that what I had witnessed with torches and chanting "Jews will not replace us", was something I never thought I would see, in real time, ever! That I thought the only stories I would hear of Nazi's first hand was from my great cousin Izzy, who through sheer will power, luck, and the grace of G-d, survived multiple concentration camps during the Holocaust.

When Chief Deane asked me why I spoke out during the contentious time in PWC that you helped flame, he was especially surprised because he shared "why take such a risk, this issue did not directly impact you" or something close to those words. I told him I was raised to stand up for the vulnerable, that I understand because my people have been on the receiving end of hate, and when one group is targeted, eventually we are all at risk. Well, that fear finally materialized last Saturday.

In the span of 72 hours the inconceivable happened. It wasn't Antifa, it wasn't some crazy leftie liberal that sent 13 bombs, that murdered two innocent African Americans in a Kroger's grocery store, or walked into a Temple while Jews worshipped for Sabbath and slaughtered them, it was crazed white supremacists. One of whom was so terrified of immigrants and refugees he targeted what he believed was an arm of HIAS and shouted "I will kill all the Jews". This crazed hater TOLD us why he did it, that the fear mongering of immigrants, of George Soros, is working. People ARE afraid Corey, they are so afraid they feel compelled to act on their hate and racism.

Words matter Corey. And you know that. You know better. Which is why you told me once you never wanted to revisit that hateful time in PWC. And yet, here you have been, fanning the flames again.

No matter what happens on Tuesday, blue wave or no, there is a growing cancer in my country, its name is hate, and it's metastasizing.

Ultimately love and sanity prevailed in PWC, and I believe, eventually, it will again for our country, I just don't know what will be left in its wake.

Elena

Each time they are met with actual facts that do not support their premise.

They offer nothing to the American people but the tyranny of a statist government (i.e. socialism, communism, fascism, theocracy, monarchy and plain old dictatorship).

I am not suggesting they will not win the midterms because of their lack of vision for what should be America. A free Constitutional Republic.

Why?

They are betting on the ignorance and raw emotion of the identity gangs they have created. All based in hate and in the destruction of America. They need the destruction of our fundamental principles and institutions in order for them to create their own power.

A power structure reminiscent of the days of the king that will ensure total equality in our oppression.

Subject: We the people of Prince William County

I am a citizen of the commonwealth of Virginia and live in Prince William county. Prince William county police and the commonwealth attorneys office are working together to foster a very dangerous situation for the citizens of Prince William county with no regards for public safety. They are forcing criminals to set up people to lessen their charges. This is called (flipping) the problem is the criminals do not set up actual criminals because it would cause them harm. They set up innocent people or people with problems like learning disabilities, mental illness or are just not smart enough to know they are being set up. The prince William police department helps and knows this is going on so they can get more busts and make it look like they are actually doing something good. These people are repeat offenders with many charges and the commonwealth attorneys let them out in public to be involved with more crimes and to set people up to benefit the courts with no regards to we the people as I stated before. One individual that I can not name on here is out with multiple felonies and one charge is robbery with a mask. I can give the name in private. It has been told to me he belongs to the group that was in Charlottesville, VA The reason I know about this information is he was staying with me because I was trying to help him before someone told me how to look up charges on him and once I found out I told him to leave. If the American people do not understand yet that our FREEDOM is being destroyed right before our eyes they never will. That includes the folks that never thought they were ever a part of it. We shouldn't be destroying our FREEDOM we should be making sure every citizen shares in it.

It has apparently been too late since the first progressive hit the scene. Republican Theodore Roosevelt.

Of course back then his positions were not even close to what is happening today. Theodore couldn't be elected as a Republican in this age. The fast train to statism (i.e. communism, socialism, fascism, monarchy, theocracy, dictatorship) has left the station.

Sadly, we ARE nation of sheep with our nose buried deep into our "smart" phones. We follow our handlers without even realizing we are putting the shackles of tyranny on our own hands and feet.

Hate is not welcome here? Who are those that hate? The ones who place people into boxes never letting them think for themselves? Those that crush the right of free assembly by attacking their ideological opponents in restaurants and coffee shops? Those that crush free speech at our universities and colleges? Those that do nothing about the horrible killings of hundreds in the streets as in Chicago and then attack those who have absolutely nothing to do with it? Those that are so weak in their totalitarian positions that they cannot debate but can only call opponents "racist" or "hateful." Those that when dehumanization does not work destroy property and physically attack their "enemies?"

I know some will say the NEO-NAZIs. Just remember those who follow the "master race" mantra of the NAZI party are following the tenants of a LEFTIST organization. The National Socialist German Worker's Party.

Subject: Unite the "Right" Rally is NOT Right Wing

I am sorry that so many of us have been taken in that the "Neo NAZI" recycling of Hitler's ""master race" idea is somehow "right" wing.

Being atrociously "right" wing is to support anarchy.

Being atrociously "left" wing is to support a statist oppressive tyranny (i.e. communism, socialism (including the NAZIs), fascism, monarchy, theocracy, and plain old dictatorship).

The only thing that could be "right" about the socialist NAZIs is that they were not friends with the Russian communists. They fought the Soviet's. This doesn't make the German socialist party right wing.

A lot of "worldly," "educated" folks disagree with me? Of course they do. They have been stuck in the old propaganda and sucked into political agendas just like a lot of other folks.

The United States is careening to the left side of the equation at breakneck speed. Why? Because control freaks get excited about the installation of a political system where they can have absolute power over the "minions" and the ability to get wealthy at the same time.

American "Progressivism" is just a "nice" word for political tyranny. You haven't noticed that they demand the state act to impose their views? Debate of ideas is not an option. They demand the boot of government. Kalifornia just made distributing plastic straws a criminal offense. Over board? Not for control freaks.

Do you not see this being played out in our schools that have become camps for this tyranny. They first claim everything they disagree with is racist or "hateful" in an attempt to vilify their opposition. If that doesn't work they "get in the face," destroy property, and attack people. If you haven't figured this out yet you are either terribly inattentive, complicit, or simply one of them.

Even the "benign" and "noble" idea of "First Responders" is a statist idea. We should all count our blessings that we have police and firefighters. However, the first responder ideas tells We the Weak and Helpless People that we need to have the police and the fire fighters and the entire government come to our rescue. We are being told that we are incapable, or worse, not allowed to respond. Of course they are going after the 2nd Amendment. Control.

We the People are the First Responders. Even if it is to call the police, or the fire fighters or the government. We the People are the first to act. We can fight, hide, flee, or simply call for reinforcements but we do those things well before the government gets involved.

Subject: Failed Leadership in Condemning the KKK

Ladies and Gentlemen,

In the darkness of night, the Klu Klux Klan cowardly came to my neighborhood to spread their hate-filled lies. The first report of their propaganda was reported to the Prince William County Police department at 0839 Sunday July 8th. Leadership from my elected officials has been completely unacceptable on this issue.

What we, your constituents, have is a single facebook post from Brentsville District Supervisor Jeanine Lawson and a verbal condemnation of bigotry at the last BOCS meeting. We have a single facebook post from Vangie Williams, candidate for Congress. We have a single facebook post from Rob Wittman, who directly condemned the KKK. We have a single facebook post from Hala Ayala, who directly condemned the KKK. All of these posts were over 48 hours after the first report was received by the police.

Radio silence from Mark Warner, Tim Kaine, Ralph Northam, Justin Fairfax, Richard Stuart, and Corey Stewart. Please correct me if I am wrong. I may have missed any communication from you. To make it clear, the KKK came to my neighborhood. There is no excuse for silence 4 days later.

This is the KKK. I don't care what party you represent, we should be unified in battling this intolerance and hate speech in our community. Your constituency needs leaders that are going to put the grandstanding and the showboating aside, dismiss partisan politics, and stand united against this hate. Are we waiting for another Charlottesville as these white nationalists make their way to DC August 12th? What have we learned? To lay back and let it happen again?

As a resident of New Bristow Village, an affected area, I find this response from our elected officials a demonstration of overall weakness by our leadership. Essentially it is an open invitation to more hate propaganda and home grown terrorism that comes with emboldening the KKK. We are already at a great disadvantage by the self-serving grandstanding and messages being sent to the public by Chairman At-Large Stewart, whose antics have paved the way for the KKK to come to my door. We are further exposed to their hate by your inaction. Whom amongst you have called for his resignation? Your constituents have. Have you?

Have any of you thought to lead by contacting the local newspapers, taking out a full-page editorial of condemnation, emailing your constituents, visiting these communities and speaking with the people directly? How are you demonstrating leadership if the best you can do is a facebook post 2 days late or nothing at all? Have any of you considered a show of true unification against hate and a show of solidarity by holding a group press conference in one of these communities?

Rise up, unite, and lead. Walk the walk. These communities need you.

Sincerely,
Tricia E. Sutherland, R.N.

Corey,

It was good to see you last night at Elite Shooting Sports. In January the Historical Commission discussed the controversy over Confederate monuments and I felt motivated to put my thoughts in writing (see attachment). I think we share similar views on the subject and I appreciate your courage in speaking out against all this political correctness.

You also have my support for defending the Second Amendment. As a competitive shooter and gun collector I feel the Second Amendment is a good litmus test for all politicians. Those who favor gun control clearly do not trust the people. If they don't trust me then I can't trust them. Gun control advocates are either incredibly myopic and naive or totally corrupt. I tend to give them the benefit of the doubt and feel they are quite clever and know exactly how to manipulate the media and public opinion.

Best wishes for a successful Senate campaign!

Greetings,

I am part of a team of seniors attending Monticello High School in Charlottesville who are currently enrolled in Piedmont Virginia Community College Dual and AP Government. We are conducting research for our CAP (Citizen Action Plan) project, where we are encouraged to engage in our community and educate ourselves on Public Policy. Our group, which includes Jessica King, Gianna Genzale, Lauren Mason, Jack Markey and Lucas Johnson, have decided collectively to do our project on immigration into Virginia.

We must interview experts in order to completely enrich our project, and we would be honored if you would accept our request to interview you either by phone or in-person. Each interview will take no longer than 20-30 minutes of your time and would be greatly appreciated.

Please contact me directly at your earliest convenience at the email address or cell number below to inform me of a date/what time that work best for you. Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

I blame you, Corey Stewart, for empowering and emboldening the hate groups that descended on Charlottesville last weekend and in rallies over the past several months.

You sowed the seeds that drew these hate groups to Charlottesville. Why did you chose to make the Robert E Lee statue your political cause? Why did these groups chose to convene in Charlottesville?

Where you go, hate follows. The same happened in our own Prince William County when you led the crackdown on illegal immigration. You brought out the worst in some people, made other members of the community fearful, and made many of us sad to admit this was happening in the place we call home.

Now my oldest son begins his college career at UVA this weekend, and I'm seeing similar patterns playing out. I know the University of Virginia, City of Charlottesville, and Commonwealth of Virginia are rising above these tragic events. I see you as part of the problem and not part of the solution. What a shame.

Corey

I just saw your CNN interview, and I found your words highly offensive on many levels. Primarily, first as a federal law enforcement agent with the USDOJ, the fact that you do not view the attack in Charlottesville, VA as an act of domestic terrorism, but simply a "murder" is very disappointing. This attack could have easily occurred in PWC, and that fact that you view this as simply some vehicular homicide reveals to me that you are focused more on your own political aspirations over and above anything else. You are completely in the minority on this. In the law enforcement and homeland security community, this is clear evidence that supports calling this an act of domestic terrorism. If you are unable to identify domestic terrorism occurring in the Commonwealth, I can't no longer support you for any elected office.

Secondly, and more on a personal note, as an African-American, the fact that you believe that it is okay for people to gather and protest along side white-supremacists and Neo-Nazis for a common cause is acceptable, is offensive. Yes, that is what you espoused to, with so much passion on CNN. Everyone does have the right to free speech, but once "fine people" gather at a protest to show support at an event organized by a documented white supremacist, where racist rants are being yelled out, you are no longer a "fine person". If you think (as you called out on CNN) the counter-protesters groups on the left were equally to blame for the violence, then these "fine people" are also equally share the blame of the violence that erupted and need to be called out too.

I've voted for you in the past, but will no longer vote for you on any election ballot for any office.

Chairman,

If you and your family made a decision about something that concerns you all (your property) and then some whacks/outsidars showed up with torches and assault weapons, telling you all you can't do what you all have already decided about your own property, what would you do? Would you roll over and play dead? Would you assume their torches and guns were not meant as threats?

No. You would defend yourself. That is what Charlottesville did on Saturday.

When you first emerged on the Virginia political scene, you presented yourself as a moderate person. In this age of the Tea Party, then Freedom Caucus, and now the embracing of the alt-right by your hero Trump, you've made a hard right turn. I understand you have gotten cozy with the organizers of this Unite the Right rally.

Showing up with guns and torches removed any doubt this rally was nothing other than hate speech. And you know this.

You have become one of the haters (for political gain) or perhaps you always was so. And just played the moderate act because that is what was politically convenient then.

You can be sure that I will not be voting for you come 2018. You are a true disappointment.

Dear Senator Rubio,

I was sad that you decided to place the total weight of blame on the Neo Nazi and "White Supremacist" groups.

Why?

Because the leftist thugs ARE just as responsible and JUST AS VILE. They are trying to push socialism, communism, and dictatorship on the United States. In fact the NAZI party that everyone likes to describe as "right" is actually socialist. How many millions have died under these statist central authority authoritarian tyrannical philosophies?

Do you not agree they are attacking our Constitution and our basic rights?

The nation is falling apart because we have no idea who we are anymore. Our people and our politicians seem clueless.

One of the worst days recently was when the House read the Constitution on the floor. Really? They even left out the so called "racist" 3/5s clause because they were ignorant of the basis for that clause.

I have a hard time listening to any politician anymore because the depth of corruption in our so called "representative" Republic seems beyond repair.
